BLOOR yorkville BR

The Bloor-Yorkville node represents the pinnacle of Canadian high-street retail. The Yorkville and Cumberland area is recognized internationally as one of the top ten shopping destinations in the world, with high-end fashion uses dominating the street front. The area provides residents and tourists with the country's most prestigious selection of luxury and aspirational retailers demonstrating the highest net rental rates in Canada. The area boasts 2.3 million sq. ft. of retail space, 1.5 million of which is street-front. Retail sales performance along the Bloor Street corridor often exceeds $2,500 per sq. ft.

94 Cumberland is strategically located on the best corner in Yorkville, the crossroads where Bloor Street West, Bay Street and Bellair Street collide, steps from Chanel, Sassafras, Free People and Off White. Other neighbouring retailers include Christian Louboutin, Brunello Cucinelli, Versace, Alobar, Stone Island, the Hazelton Hotel, the Four Seasons Hotel, Kate Spade, Barry's Bootcamp, Lululemon, TNT, Equinox and Soul Cycle.

At the Epicentre of a Transforming Node

The newly redeveloped Manulife Centre featuring Canada's first Eataly

1200 Bay Street, the second tallest tower proposal in the country

94 Cumberland is situated among some of Toronto's most transformative development projects, welcoming a combination of new luxury residential towers and retailers. The newly proposed tower at 1200 Bay Street (Canada's second tallest tower proposal- 87 storeys) and The One at 1 Bloor Street West (currently under construction), will continue to dramatically reshape the immediate skyline at Yonge and Bloor.

Retail development projects in the area include the Manulife Centre redevelopment, the Holt Renfrew Flagship at 50 Bloor Street West and the retail podium at The One Condominium. The recently renovated Manulife Centre features Canada's first Eataly, drawing significant foot traffic to the area. The Holt Renfrew Flagship is currently undergoing a major transformation that will include a new modern facade, updated interior and a restaurant space. Lastly, a new Apple Flagship has been confirmed for the corner of Yonge & Bloor in the podium of The One, drawing even more traffic into the area.

Canada's Most Exclusive Residential Market

Bloor-Yorkville is experiencing dramatic intensification with a series of high-end residential and retail uses in the immediate vicinity of 94 Cumberland Street. There are 20 condominium projects in various stages of development totaling more than 7,000 units in this node. The One, an 85 storey condominium currently under construction on the south west corner of Bloor & Yonge, once complete will be the tallest condo in Canada and will have a total of 416 suites.
