BLOOR-YORKVILLE

The Bloor-Yorkville node represents the pinnacle of Canadian high-street retail. The area is recognized internationally as one of the top ten shopping destinations in the world, with high-end fashion uses dominating the street front. The area provides residents and tourists with the country's most prestigious selection of luxury and aspirational retailers. The area boasts 2.3 million sq. ft. of retail space, 1.5 million of which is street-front. Retail sales performance along the Bloor Street corridor often exceeds $2,500 per sq. ft.

157 Bloor Street West is ideally located at the corner of Bloor Street West and Avenue Road, a major arterial road connecting midtown to downtown. It is steps from Museum subway station and across the street from the Royal Ontario Museum, Canada's largest and most visited museum. The site is surrounded by luxury tenants including Tiffany & Co., Louis Vuitton, Burberry, Cartier, Montblanc and Gucci.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM (ROM)

Located across the street from 157 Bloor Street West, the Royal Ontario Museum is a museum of art, culture and natural history. It is one of the largest museums in North America, and is the largest in Canada. In 2018, the ROM saw 1.44 million visitors.

EATALY

Canada's first Eataly opened on Bloor last year to line ups around the block.

Epicentre

OF A TRANSFORMING NODE

157 Bloor Street West is situated among some of Toronto's most transformative development projects, welcoming a combination of new luxury residential towers and retailers. Across the street on the north-west corner of Bloor & Avenue is the Park Hyatt redevelopment at 2 Avenue Road. Once complete the hotel will feature 65 brand new luxury residential units, an expanded event space in the podium and updated hotel rooms. Other significant and noteworthy developments include the newly proposed tower at 1200 Bay Street (Canada's second tallest tower proposal- 87 storeys) and The One at 1 Bloor Street West (currently under construction), which will continue to dramatically reshape the immediate skyline in Bloor-Yorkville.

Retail development projects in the area include the Manulife Centre redevelopment, the Holt Renfrew Flagship at 50 Bloor Street West and the retail podium at The One Condominium. The recently renovated Manulife Centre features Canada's first Eataly, drawing significant foot traffic to the area. The Holt Renfrew Flagship is currently undergoing a major transformation that will include a new modern facade, updated interior and a restaurant space. Lastly, a new Apple Flagship has been confirmed for the corner of Yonge & Bloor in the podium of The One, drawing even more traffic into the area.
