THE DANFORTH

Danforth Village is a popular residential neighborhood in the east end of the city known for its multicultural residents, strong sense of community and unique charm. It is an in-demand neighbourhood for families given its proximity to downtown, access to public transportation as well as the many parks and schools in the area.

Danforth Avenue, just east of Greenwood Avenue and west of Victoria Park Avenue, is the main retail strip of Danforth Village that consists of more than 300 businesses. The street is dominated by family-oriented independent shops and restaurants, as well necessary big box stores to supply all the neighbourhood needs.

The area sees an influx of visitors in the summer months when residents from all over the city flock to enjoy the one-of-a-kind retail, experience the abundance of parks and to make their way south to Woodbine Beach. Various events such as Taste of the Danforth, Danforth Rocks and Fall garden tours draw hundreds of visitors to the neighborhood each year.

TRANSIT OVERVIEW

2301 Danforth Avenue features excellent access to local and regional transportation. Its location directly on the TTC Bloor-Danforth line in between Woodbine and Main Street stations combined with its proximity to many TTC bus lines allows for access to many of Toronto's thriving neighborhoods, such as The Beaches. The Bloor-Danforth Subway line has 31 stations and runs east-west along Danforth Avenue and Bloor Street, operating from the western area of Dundas West & Kipling Avenue to Eglinton Avenue East and Kennedy Road.

The Property is a short walk of 650 meters to the Danforth GO station, allowing one to get to the downtown core in less than 25 minutes. The Danforth GO Station provides access to the GO transit network, which operates between Hamilton and Kitchener-Waterloo in the west, to Newcastle and Peterborough in the east, and from Orangeville and Beaverton in the north to Niagara Falls in the south.
