At the Epicentre of a Transforming Node

10 Prince Street is situated among some of Toronto's most transformative development projects, welcoming a combination of new luxury residential towers and retailers. Most notably is the Park Hyatt redevelopment at 2 Avenue Road, which features sixty five brand new luxury residential units, an expanded event space in the podium and updated hotel rooms. Other noteworthy developments include the newly proposed tower at 1200 Bay Street (Canada's second tallest tower proposal- 87 storeys) and The One at 1 Bloor Street West (currently under construction), will continue to dramatically reshape the immediate skyline in Bloor-Yorkville.

Retail development projects in the area include the Manulife Centre redevelopment, the Holt Renfrew Flagship at 50 Bloor Street West and the retail podium at The One Condominium. The recently renovated Manulife Centre features Canada's first Eataly, drawing significant foot traffic to the area. The Holt Renfrew Flagship is currently undergoing a major transformation that will include a new modern facade, updated interior and a restaurant space. Lastly, a new Apple Flagship has been confirmed for the corner of Yonge & Bloor in the podium of The One, drawing even more traffic into the area.
