LOCATION OVERVIEW

460 Yonge Street is centrally located in Downtown Yonge, the heart of Toronto's tourist, retail and entertainment scene. It has excellent frontage on Yonge Street, a major north/south arterial road and is located just north of the busy intersection of Yonge and College. The site is well connected, with a one minute walk to both the College subway station and a 506 Carlton streetcar stop, as well as a few minutes walk to Wellesley subway station.

The site benefits from its proximity to Yonge-Dundas Square and The Eaton Centre, two of the city's most popular tourist destinations. Yonge-Dundas Square is often compared to Times Square, drawing nearly 60 million visitors each year. The intersection is home to a large outdoor public square, a 24 multiplex theatre and the Eaton Centre, North America's busiest mall.

Downtown Yonge is experiencing exponential growth, with the development of a number of high-rise condominiums. There are over 1,000 storeys of condos under construction/proposed along the Yonge Street corridor between Gerrard Street and Bloor Street, totaling over 11,500 incoming condominium units. Notable condominium developments include Halo Residences (451 units), currently under construction just north of the Property, and 2 Carlton, a proposed condominium across the street bringing in an additional 1,046 condo units to the immediate area.
