Traffic Generators

Eaton Centre is the city's top tourist attraction with over 52 million visitors annually and is the busiest centre in North America in terms of annual pedestrian counts. It is consistently one of the top five performing malls in Canada.

The mall is anchored by Saks Fifth Avenue, Hudson's Bay and Nordstrom.

Yonge-Dundas Square is often compared to NYC's Time Square, and is the central hub of downtown Toronto. The square hosts community celebrations, promotions and concerts and sees over 250 events each year. It is located above Dundas subway station, which has an average daily ridership of 77,800 passengers.

Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University) offers more than 100+ undergraduate and graduate programs and is home to over 45,000 students. Toronto Met has the highest increase in applications in Canada and is the most applied to university in Ontario relative to available space.
